Default in RANDOLPH COUNTY indebtedness secured by that certain mortgage executed by George McCarley, a single man, to HomeSense Financial Corp. of Alabama, dated May 1, 2000, said mortgage being recorded in book MORT 403, Page 122, in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Randolph County, Alabama. Said Mortgage was last sold, assigned and transferred to Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems Inc., its successors and assigns, as nominee for Household Finance Corp., its successors and assigns.

The undersigned, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems Inc., under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, will sell at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash before the courthouse door of Randolph County, Alabama, during the legal hours of sale, on February 12, 2004, the following real estate, situated in Randolph County, Alabama, to-wit:

A lot of land in the City of Roanoke, Alabama, particularly described as follows: Lot No. 4 in Block D, according to map of David Manley's estate, made by David Pittman, County Surveyor, dated April 3, 1916, said lot fronting on the east side of Chestnut Street a distance of 68 feet and extending back 210 feet on the north line and 213 feet on the south line and being 42 feet wide on the east or back end; and also, a strip adjoining said lot No. 4 on the south side, said strip being 11 1/2 feet from the east side of Chestnut Street, extending back 213 feet on the north line and 215 feet on the south line and being 8 feet wide on the east or back end, together with all improvements thereon. This being the same property as described in Deed Book 120, Page 219, Office of the Judge of Probate, Randolph County, Alabama. Said property is commonly known as 211 Chestnut Street, Roanoke, AL 36274.

The indebtedness secured by said Mortgage has been and is hereby declared due because of default under the terms of said Mortgage and Note, including but not limited to the nonpayment of the indebtedness as remaining in default, this sale will be made for the purpose of paying the same, all expenses of the sale, including attorney's fees and all other payments provided for under the terms of the Mortgage and Note.

Said property will be sold subject to the following items which may affect the title to said property: all zoning ordinances; matters which would be disclosed by an accurate survey; or by an inspection of the property; any outstanding taxes, including but not limited to ad valorem taxes, which constitute liens upon said property; special assessments; all outstanding bills for public utilities which constitute liens upon said property; all restrictive covenants, easements, rights-of-way; the statutory right of redemption pursuant to Alabama law; and any other matters of record superior to said Mortgage. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the undersigned, the party in possession of the property is George McCarley or tenant(s).

Case No. CV-04-41

GEORGE D. MCCARLEY

DEFENDANT

ORDER

Filed in Office

SEP 3 2004

KIM S. BENEFIELD
Clerk of Circuit Court

This cause came before this court on August 19, 2004 for the hearing of various motions. The Plaintiff had filed a motion for summary judgment and the Defendant had filed a motion to dismiss the Plaintiff's action and a motion for sanctions. When the case was called Honorable Oliver Kitchens, appeared as the attorney for Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., and the Defendant George D. McCarley appeared pro se. Both persons argued all said motions. In addition the Plaintiff had previously filed supporting documentation relative to its motion for summary judgment and the Defendant submitted various documents and citations at the hearing. The court took all matters under advisement and considered the same.

Having considered all matters presented, the court hereby grants the Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment. The court finds that the foreclosure on the property owned by George D. McCarley was done properly and there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the Plaintiff is entitled to the judgment as a matter of law. Accordingly the Plaintiff is hereby awarded possession of the subject property as described in the foreclosure proceedings and the Defendant is order to remove himself and his belongings from the said premises immediately. In the event the Defendant has not removed himself and his belongings from the premises within five (5) days from the date of this order the Plaintiff herein may advise the Sheriff of Randolph County and the Sheriff is hereby authorized and directed to forcibly remove the Defendant and his belongings from the said premises and to place the Plaintiff in possession of the premises promptly.

000107

The Defendant's motion to dismiss and the Defendant's motion for sanctions are both hereby denied.

Let a copy of this order be mailed to all attorneys of record and all unrepresented parties.

Done this 30th day of August, 2004.
